Irvine Unified School District
Publicity Release Form

Each year, the Irvine Unified School District will host extracurricular and academic events. These events occasionally draws the attention of newspaper and magazine reporters, photographers, television news crews and other media representatives. In addition, the Irvine Unified School District often will use these pictures and video images to highlight these events.

Though many parents enjoy seeing the work of their children featured, others may wish to remain private about their accomplishments. To indicate whether you consent to the publication of your child's image, please review and complete this form.
